WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION:

Being a freelance interpreter requires more than just interpreting. Most of us focus so heavily on language and skill that the business side of our profession falls through the cracks. In this workshop, participants will learn the basics about self-employment, business and finance when it comes to being a freelance interpreter. By identifying as business owners and becoming strategic with taxes, insurance, retirement and business practices, interpreters can empower themselves and make decisions that improve their current and future careers.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER:

Rosemary Johnson has been an interpreter and entrepreneur for 7 years. While maintaining a full time freelance interpreting career, Rosemary also co-authored the book "The Interpreter's Quick Guide to Self-Employment" which is currently being used by several ITPs nation wide, founded Labyrinth LLC which provides resources for parents/educators working with special needs children, and is the President of Progressive Accessible Living (PAL) which is a nonprofit organization awakening special needs teens to a variety of world opportunities. Rosemary has spent the last 6 years researching, attending conferences, and implementing business/finance strategies, and is looking forward to sharing her knowledge with the community!
